SATURDAY'S game was most welcome in many areas. A game for the players, back to the old routine for the management, football for you to spectate and lastly but not leastly, three points for us on our return to professional activity. Three points has always seemed more welcome when you are one of the few teams who are fortunate to have a game ahead as it appears to show a more prosperous light. This can also be paralleled with the game we have in hand. We have played only 25 games whereas the majority of our counterparts are on 27, 28, 29 and in one case 30 matches played. The old adage that games in hand are of no use until the points are obtained is certainly most correct and therefore taking all these matters into consideration the three points places us in good light when evaluating this addage.

Hopefully the weather will allow us to enter a spell where we shall play uninterrupted football and with us in the process of re-arranging the outstanding fixtures the remainder of the season will soon show a different compilation as the dates become confirmed. Arranging games to one's satisfaction is not always an easy task as it would appear that when you wish to play, other sides are either involved themselves, unable to play, or do not want to play. At the end of the day, in the event of disagreements, the matter is presided upon by the Football League and this quite often presents a date to be appointed which does not suit either club. I therefore feel it is to our advantage to try and arrange games on a mutually convenient date as the matter is better dealt within our control and not beyond our control. Some of the facts we take into consideration are not having too many home games 'on the bounce' for various obvious reasons and also to tie up away fixtures in such a fashion that we have economy of travel from the point of view of time and finance. Hopefully at some stage in the immediate future we shall be able to supply you with a complete list of re-arrangements which would therefore make the final half of the season come to some shape from the point of view of fixtures. I have already earlier said that playing twice a week is very much convenient to the type of team we have and the validity or wisdom of this impression will of course be evaluated by yourselves from future results.

It is very pleasing to note that the injury situation is as clear as it has been for 12 months with Steven Thompson being the only player sidelined, with the exception of course of Keith Houghton. Hopefully the next week or so will see Steven return to full activity and I am quite sure beyond all doubt that if we are able to keep a full squad together, with the odd reinforcement from the point of view of playing a large amount of games in a small period of time, we shall be able to provide some results. The Wigan game I felt was certainly most difficult. It is interesting to observe that there are several teams playing, like Wigan, from the tactical point of view and they are all holding their own. I think you will agree that this strategy is most difficult to break down from the point of view of numbers they have at the back and the longer the game remains 0-0, if you have the odd slip you are liable to concede from the opponents breakaway which makes your task more formidable. There is however a line of thought to say that the onus is upon us to break this type of blanket down and I appreciate this opinion. Quite often the matter surrounds scoring a goal early which then lures the opponents into a more attacking shape which in turn gives you great opportunity to increase your scoreline.

Today we welcome Bolton Wanderers who have obtained results quite recently since the appointment of Charlie Wright as Manager. As you have seen over the years, managerial changes quite often develop a change of circumstances so we shall certainly need to be on our utmost guard today in order that we are not caught up on the wrong side of their successful purge.

THE New Year has started well for Lincoln City, being unbeaten in the three League games played and getting through the 1st round of the Freight Rover Trophy with an impressive win in the 2nd leg. The second round of this Trophy should have been played this week but had to be postponed because of the fixture pile up due to the recent bad weather. We have been lucky to miss the worst of the weather but still a lot of work had to go into getting the pitch fit for the last home game. The result justified the effort even though the game was not too exciting. If we can win today then there is every expectation that we can start to climb the League and put behind us the fear of relegation.

A good run in the League can also help in the Freight Rover Trophy. We hope to do well in this competition which culminates in a Wembley final. I am sure that every supporter of the Imps would be delighted to watch Lincoln under the shadow of the twin towers.

Much has been written in the press about the present negotiations between the Football League and the TV companies. The proposed agreement was rejected by the League clubs last week on the grounds that it did not provide sufficient cash for the televising of football matches, and that the TV companies wanted to televise a larger number of games than the clubs felt was right for the game. Fresh negotiations are continuing and hopefully an amicable agreement will soon be reached. If one cannot be reached then it looks as though there will be no English football on television next season. This will cause certain financial problems, particularly for the clubs in the lower divisions. We have received some £25,000 per season from the TV rights and obviously if this is lost then extra efforts will have to be made to provide additional revenue — either by way of more spectators through the gates or increased fund raising. Naturally overheads will have to be kept to an absolute minimum. Let's hope that the negotiations succeed and the cash is obtained. This will mean additional revenue for the clubs, much needed by all — big and small.

The last meeting of all the League clubs took place last week. Phil Hough, as Secretary, attended on behalf of the Club. This was his last such meeting as Secretary of Lincoln City. Today marks the end of his time as Secretary; on Monday he becomes Assistant Secretary of Sheffield Wednesday. May I, on behalf of everyone associated with the Club, take this opportunity of thanking him for all his efforts on behalf of Lincoln City and of wishing him all the best in his new job. No doubt we will see him from time to time.

Chris Rodman is to take over as Secretary, at least for the time being, and we wish him well in this new position.

REFLECTIONS

THIS, as many of you know, is the last game for me as Secretary before I take up my new post as Assistant Secretary of Sheffield Wednesday Football Club. I would just like to reflect back on my association with the Imps over the years. When I commenced employment with Lincoln City Football Club on the 4th August 1980 I didn't realise that we would have such a successful baptism into the world of professional football. In that first season we achieved promotion from the Fourth Division with Southend United, Doncaster Rovers and Wimbledon in a season where we averaged league gates of 4,600. In that season Peake, Harford, Thompson and Cunningham were regular features of the side and promotion was attained with the goals against being the lowest in all four divisions. The next season saw us miss out by just one point finishing in fourth position behind Fulham and the highlight and also the biggest disappointment must have been that last game at Fulham. The crowd that day at Craven Cottage was 20,398 and what an atmosphere was generated by those who attended the game which included an estimated 8,000 Lincoln followers. To those at the game the match was full of incident and was a tremendous advertisement for Third Division football.

But intrigue was to follow with the dramatic resignation of Chairman Dennis Houlston. The Club came close to liquidation in June of that year, finally being saved by the Lincoln City Council at the last possible moment when they purchased the freehold of the land to enable us to continue trading.

The 1982-83 season was a memorable one, in so far as the Milk Cup and newly formed Football League Trophy were concerned. In the Milk Cup we reached the third round finally being defeated by First Division West Ham after extra time at Upton Park when many supporters of both sides felt that overall we would have been worthy victors. In the Football League Trophy we reached the final against Millwall and despite torrential rain we were entertained to an excellent game of football which resulted in us losing 3-2.

Last season will again be remembered for our exploits in the Milk Cup, this time against Tottenham Hotspur who we actually defeated 2-1 in the second leg at Sincil Bank and who must have felt relieved that their defeat wasn't heavier which could have resulted in their being eliminated on aggregate.

As I conclude my last notes as Secretary I would like to thank everyone who has made my association with the Club successful and a special thank you to all the staff, who have shown tremendous loyalty, enthusiasm, and indeed affection for the Club. I will miss the friendly atmosphere and magnificent team spirit which has been fostered during my association with the Club and I sincerely hope that the staff and Club enjoy continued success in the years ahead.

OUR sincere thanks are extended to Miss Diane Hennell who recently undertook a sponsored walk between Ancaster and Harnston to raise money for the Club. Diane raised the magnificent sum of £70 for her morning's work and will present her sponsorship money prior to today's game.

PHIL HOUGH

OUR VISITORS

BOLTON have recently changed their Manager, with John McGovern leaving the Club and former Coach, Charlie Wright, being appointed first Caretaker and then Manager in succession to McGovern, following an impressive spell in temporary control.

The Trotters struggled at the start of the season and were firmly entrenched in the lower reaches of the Third Division when McGovern departed just after Christmas. Last season Bolton were one of the favourites to gain promotion back to the Second Division at the first attempt, however they finished in a disappointing tenth position without being able to maintain the consistency required for promotion.

The Trotters have the nucleus of a young side which last season included Neil Redfearn, who joined the Imps during the summer for £10,000, and several other players who are showing their true potential. Bolton, like many other clubs, have struggled financially but have recently sold their centre half Gerry McElhinney to Plymouth Argyle for £32,500 and have basically retained the squad from the 1983-84 campaign.

HOW LINCOLN CITY CAME TO BE FORMED

ORGANISED football in the city can be traced back to the early 1860s when a group of former public schoolboys established the Lincoln Football Club. The game they practised on their Wragby Road ground was closer to modern rugby than to soccer but they quickly made their mark in the football world. Their opponents were drawn from within the county and occasionally matches were played further afield against Hull, Sheffield and Nottingham. However by the 1880s decline had set in. The best teams locally were now Brigg, Grantham and particularly Spilsby who won the Lincolnshire Cup in its first three years.

In 1883 frustration at the lack of a decent footballing side led to calls for a new club to be set up, but no moves were made until June of 1884 when Robert Dawber loaned a field lying between St. Peter at Gowts churchyard and the Sincil Dyke — this was John O'Gaunts. A meeting was called by Sharpley Bainbridge (a draper and former player with the Lincoln Football Club) and William Mortimer at the Monson Arms Hotel. This took place on 26 June and resulted in the formation of the Lincoln City Football Club. The initial objectives of the new club were to win the County Challenge Cup and to provide good football in the city. Season tickets were soon available priced at 2s. 6d. (12½p) and admission to ordinary matches was set at 3d. (1½p).

The new team chose red and white strips as its colours, and drew its players from the best of the local sides — Lindum (the renamed Lincoln Football Club), Albion, and St. Nicholas. Early matches saw them thrash Sleaford (9-1) and Boston Excelsior (11-0) but they were soon eliminated from the FA Cup by Grimsby Town and from the Lincolnshire Cup by Horncastle. Nevertheless by Christmas they were the premier club in the city — they had the most members, the most supporters and the most attractive fixtures.

Footnote

There has been confusion recently over the date of formation, but it is quite clear from both contemporary press reports and pre-war publications that it is 1884. 1883 has only been used as the date in the post-war period.

 Any team changes will be

Returned from Crewe in December where he had been on loan. Has conceded only five goals in the last nine games.

Stuart Naylor

Has become a versatile player. This hard tackling young player has shown great potential. A product of our youth policy.

Gary Strodder

Phil has been a reliable defender and loyal servant to the club for ten years. Now in his testimonial year. Phil is captain of Worcestershire CCC.

Phil Neale

Has shown great potential since his move to Sincil Bank from Bolton. Scored his only goal for the club against Telford in the FA Cup.

Neil Redfearn

Joined the Red Imps from non-League Telford United. Has gone from strength to strength as the season has progressed.

Alan Walker

Returned to the side against Derby after a long absence due to injury. Club captain and an inspiration to the rest of the team.

Gordon Simmonite

Joined the Imps from Birmingham in the close season. Has proved a useful asset to the Imps with his hard tackling and uncompromising style.

John McGinley

A product of our successful youth policy. Phil has played consistently well in midfield or at the back. City's 'Mr. Versatile'.

Phil Turner

Another player from our youth ranks, has played nearly 250 times for City. Snatched the winning goal against Wigan last Saturday.

Gordon Hobson

Joined the Imps from non-League Arnold for £2,000. Made his first full appearance against Hartlepool and scored twice.

Devan White

The Imps record signing from First Division Southampton is a very skilful player and instigator of many fine moves.

George Shipley

Signed from Norwich in 1983 where he was leading goalscorer in their promotion year 1981-82. Is currently the Imps leading scorer with 6 goals (2 penalties).

1 Simon Farnworth	After a promising apprenticeship, Simon made the most of his break into the Bolton first team last season and missed only ten games.
2 Brian Borrows	Player of the Year last season, this former Everton full-back made a terrific impression in the Third Division.
3 Jimmy Phillips	The Bolton youngster has made great strides in his bid for first team recognition and deserved his chance against Bristol Rovers at the start of the season.
4 Warren Joyce	Missed only one game last season, the all-round sportsman has played County Cricket at Colts level and is a Rugby Union schoolboy tourist.
5 Mark Came	This hard-tackling central defender gave up a 9 to 5 job when he joined Wanderers from non-League Winsford Utd at the end of last season.
6 Ray Deakin	The Bolton skipper regained his place after a loss of form last season. His former clubs include Everton and Port Vale.
7 Paul Booth	Born in Bolton. Has played at schoolboy level for Wanderers. Was signed as an apprentice before turning full-time professional.
8 Jeff Chandler	Jeff scored 17 goals and was the only ever-present last season. A Republic of Ireland international has played for Blackpool and Leeds.
9 George Oghani	Another signing from non-League who switched from wing to central striker to earn himself a second chance.
10 Tony Caldwell	Set a club record scoring five goals in the 8-1 win over Walsall last season. Also from non-League football was last seasons top scorer with 22 goals.
11 Graham Bell	Formerly with Oldham and Preston and signed from Carlisle last season to add a touch of experience to the midfield.
12 Wayne Foster	Fast and hard running, a former England Youth player has made more than 80 appearances in Bolton's League side.

THE MARKETING SCORE

Phil Neale (far left) and Phil Turner (far right) with the pupils of Skellingthorpe Road County Junior school who they visited to help with coaching and demonstrating. Phil and Phil obviously did a good job as the school went on to win the Ivan Wilkinson trophy for local Junior schools.

IT WAS with great pleasure that we were able to announce that the Anglia Building Society will be sponsoring our Family Enclosure in the St. Andrew's Stand. The 'family only' area in the St. Andrew's Stand was opened only this season as part of the club's policy of attracting more families to Sincil Bank. So far this season we have been extremely pleased with the response, however our agreement with the Anglia Building Society is not purely a sponsorship deal. Each time a youngster attends the club's successful 'City Soccer Special' project for 8 to 14 year olds, they will be given a special ticket. If they collect four tickets they can open a Top Saver account at the Anglia with the club and the Building Society paying their £1.00 membership fee and depositing £1.00 in their account. Needless to say, both parents and children are very pleased with the idea.

Any family can take advantage of the excellent savings on family ticket prices provided that each family contains one adult and one child. The entrance price is £2.50 (Adult), £1.15 (Child). This compares with the normal admission price of £3.00 for a seat in the St. Andrew's Stand.
